

The American Prosthodontic Society
Promoting the Advancement of Prosthetic Dentistry Through Clinical Research and Education

The American Prosthodontic Society 2021 Webinar Series - July

Speakers – Minh Tran & Nondas Vlachopoulos

Title

Technique & Technology: 2 Sides of the Same Dental “Tech” Coin

Abstract

The most recent evolutions in digital dentistry, materials, workflows, and techniques offers a whole new range of prosthodontic treatment approaches. These incremental improvements result in more predictability, better aesthetics, and greater outcomes.

Hear from two of the dental laboratory industries’ leading experts and their experiences with current trends in dental technology and techniques in the lab environment.

Learning Objectives

1. Learn about modern ceramic materials based on their properties and indications.
2. Review cases and techniques for overcoming modern aesthetic challenges.
3. Learn about CAD/CAM technology and its current and future uses in prosthodontic lab. applications
4. Understand digital workflows and the role of the dental lab in successful treatment planning.